DAILY EVENING STAR. GITY ITEMS.

Library of the House .- This place is a disgrace to the House of Representatives, stuck away as it is in the nooks and corners of a diminutive room of the Capitol, and so filled with piles of books, (having no other place to put them) that members, who are alone admitted, when here, must have a crowded and moublesome time to ascertain their wishes. There are over thirty thousand volumes deposited there, containing a full and complete history of the Government, the early history of our country by Mr. Gales, with the Glabe's continuance, included. Why is not a suitable place provided for this important branch of Congress? Col. John A. Parker is the Librarian, and Mr. John Messimer, assistant, who faust have much difficulty in such small quarters to attend to the necessary business of the Library.

Picturesque view of Washington .- Persons who risit the Capitol are generally not aware that one of the most pleasant parts of a visit to the magnificent Library Room, is a view from the western portico of the building, at the plate glass of the windows, where they will see, between 10 and 1 o'clock, a beautiful picture-que view of Washington city. Every part of the city, east of the Capitol, not fully seen by the eve, is here developed, President's House, Departments, rows of trees, &c. No painter can equal the bulliancy and correctness of this glass landscape. Try it, ye artists, and connoisseurs!

U. S. Steamer Allegany .- The accident to this vessel, about two years ago, has not yet been repaired. and worse has been the matter. Our Navy Yard conductors proposed to put her in order in six months. but the then Secretary of the Navy ordered her to Norfolk to be fitted up by contract, where the Job it appears has been so badly done, as to probably ruin the boat. If our information is correct, and it is from good authority, this proves the impolicy and impropriety of sending work from our Yavy Yard, or any of the Navy Yards, and also is an incident showing that the contract system does not work well in this

Day of Forgiveness .- The stores of our Hebrew citizens being closed on Wednesday, much inquiry was made about it, which we have ascertained was that it was celebrated by these people, by ancient authority, as the Day of Forgiveness, which name explains its object. They fasted and prayed from sundown of the previous day to sundown of Wednes-

Landis und Sharpley's Minstreis .- A delightful auditory witnessed the performances of these minstrels last evening, at Odd Fellows' Hall, the troupe exhibiting that talent for which they have been heralded. This evening a varied programme is presented, and no doubt a crowded house will enjoy its beauties-Song, wit, sentiment, dance, &c., compose its features; and by the way, Mr. P. Lane proves himself to be "the champion dancer of the world," indeed.

School of Design .- The Metropolitan Mechanics' Institute have resolved to establish a school of design. in connection with their organization, which will soon be carried into effect. Mr. Charles Calvert, the worthy President, has resigned.

Clothing for All .- Messrs. Wall & Stevens, Pennsylvania avenue, near Iron Hall, have a very extensive assortment of clothing for old and young, and also furnishing goods of all qualities, warranted as Iron Co. represented, and to be had on pleasant terms. This establishment is one of the very best in the line, where gentlemen, youth, and children can be satisfactorily fitted and supplied.

Funeral of a Marylander .- The Grand Lodge, of which Charles Calvert, Esq. is grand master, and the Washington Lodge, I. O. O. F., and others. turned out this afternoon in procession, in respect to a deceased, worthy member of the order, Mr. William II. Peaco, formerly of Annapolis. The funeral was solemn and impressive, and music in beautiful character with the solemn event, the whole looking brotherly and appropriate.

Seminary for Young Ladies .- The educational astitution of M. A. Tyson and Sisters, situated on F street, between 12th and 13th, justly attracts the favorable consideration of parents and guardians.

Farmer's Hotel .- In our former notice of Hotels this one was inadvertently omitted, with probably others, and we therefore state to-day that it has changed hands, by which Mr. G. W. Wren has become proprietor, with a popular assistant to help in the business. This comfortable house, just newly fitted up, is situated on the corner of 8th and D sts., and travellers can have good accommodations there.

Beautiful Hats, &c .- Evans has a beautiful assortment of hats, caps, &c., at his rich store on Pennsylvania avenue, between 12th and 13th streets, where those in want of a splendid tile can surely be accommodated. Nothing improves one's appearance like an excellent hat, and as Evans can furnish it, as well as furs, and other things in the line, why not give him a call? We pause for a reply. Those beautiful felt hats for ladies are remarkably suitable for

The Pork Hotel .- This is a fine place for a pleasant visit, either by foot or horse, situated a short distance northwardly out 7th street, agural retreat where gentlemen can be han somely accommodated with dinners, suppers, &c. The Messrs. Harrison keep it in "apple-pie order."

Knocked Senseless .- Mr. Brice Litton, of Rockville, was yesterday knocked senseless while crossing the avenue, by the tongue of a carriage coming in confact with his body. He was taken to the Franklin Hotel, doctors called in, who found no serious injuries, and he is now doing well, under the kind treatment of Mr. and Mrs. Baker.

German Red Mea's Ball .- Carusi's Saloon was a theatre of unalloyed hilarity and waltzing pleasure, last evening, on the occasion of the German Red Men's annual ball. A full attendance, numbers o. ladies, harmony and joyfulness, such as is peculiato German entertainments, characterised the rich

Postponed Procession.-The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows have postponed their contemplated proces-

Becatiful Building.- The house on the corner of 7th street and Louisiana avenue, owned by Mr. S. C. Barney, is a fine ornament to that part of the city, and is for rent. See advertisement.

Magnificent Raffle .- Mr. John Ellis, has a raffle to-morrow afternoon, of a number of splendid artieles, at his music store, to which the attention of persons interested in such matters is directed. They are truly beautiful, and will be quite acceptable to those who win any of them, of course. irc .- The alarm of fire about twelve o'clock last night, was caused by the burning of a frame building situated in the First Ward, and belonging to Mrs. Laskey. The loss is not very great.

More about the Omnibus Scene.-Yesterday, our Georgetown correspondent mentioned a shooting affair, which is thus referred to by the Georgetown I ependent of this morning:

Shooting with Intent, &c .- About 10 o'clock last evening, Fred. H. Southworth, (who left this Distriet for South America, in March, 1844, and who returned lather from California last month,) fired three successive shots from a pictol or revolver, with intent to kill Mr. Henry Hurdy, of Washington, a be enter of Lingan and Prospect streets, in this town. Each shot was unsuccessful, and was made at a distance of more than twenty yards. After the ficus. Southworth retreated briskly, though no our pursued him. A warrant was issued by Justice Reaver for his arrest. He has been boasting several days of his purpose. At the time of our going to press, his arrest had not been effected.

Dismissed and Suspended.-Watchman Simonds has been dismissed from the Auxiliary Guard, and watchman Fletcher suspended. The cause was improper conduct while on duty.

Watch Returns .- Jas. Parker, colored, profane language in the street, workhouse thirty days; Ishay Rauck, vagrant, workhouse thirty days; Chas. Roswell, drunk and disorderly, paid fine and costs, and gave security; Samuel Lewis, colored, paid fine and corts, and gave security.

Baltimore Correspondence.

BALTIMORE, October 13, 1853. It is near the witching hour of night, and the day has passed off without much news of a character to There has been a wedding among our fashionable circles here, which has afforded considerable guity. Doctor Frick, one of our premising and talented young physicians, was united in the silken bands to Miss A. Sargent. They have been serenaded by the full Germania band. How sweet must it be to while away the melting melody of young love's dream, with such rapturous strains of music as is discoursed by this splendid band, falling in soft cadence upon the

Those who are best posted, say that the coming fall and wither will be unusually prolific in parties, matrimony, and other festivities. A number of magnificent entertainments are in contemplation. The assemblies are to be gotten up in grand style. What effect the tightness of the money market thay have upen siith movements, is yet to be solved.

The indications are that the Cattle Show, which commences on the 25th inst., will be the most elaborate and attractive ever seen in Maryland. It is expected that not less than twenty-five thousand strangers will visit Baltimore on that occasion: The pollticians will also make good use of it. There will be one or more grand political meetings during its con-

Your readers, and especially those of Georgetown, will learn with deep regret of the death of the Rev. Samuel Bryson, of the M. E. Church. He died this morning, after a brief illness, from disease of the heart. I learn that he was stationed, or had been assigned to take charge of a church in Georgetown, D. C. By the way, I have just seen the first number of the Evening Bulletin, a new afternoon paper is ued in Richmond, by Messrs. Bailie & Co. It is decidedly a handsome sheet, beautifully printed, and gives evblence of energy, talent, industry and all the requisites of a successful journal. I observe its correspondent "Alfred" gives the Star quite a flattering notice. The Bulletin is certain of success.
